Background

The NSW Police Legacy is hosting the Remembrance Bike Ride 2025.

The purpose of the ride is to remember the legacy of deceased police officers and to raise funds for NSW Police Legacy.

The Remembrance Bike Ride 2025 is scheduled over three days from Friday 29 August to Sunday 31 August 2025.

- Day 1, Friday 29 August 2025 - Commencing from the NSW Police Remembrance Wall in Sydney at 5.30am on Friday 29 August and ending at Mittagong.
- Day 2, Saturday 30 August 2025 - Commencing from Mittagong and ending at the NSW Police Academy in Goulburn.
- Day 3, Sunday 31 August 2025 - Commencing from the NSW Police Academy in Goulburn and ending at the NSW Police Remembrance Wall in Canberra.

Comments

On Friday 29 August 2025, ride participants will gather at the NSW Police Remembrance Wall at the Domain at 4.30am with the ride scheduled to commence from 5.30am onwards.

Bike riders will exit the Domain via Art Gallery Road, travel south on College Street, Wentworth Avenue, right on Hay Street towards Broadway and west towards Parramatta Road.

Bike riders will travel in four pelotons and each peloton will be escorted by front and rear by fully marked mobile Police command vehicles. All pelotons will comply with traffic signs and traffic signals along the entire route. There will be signage indicating bikes ahead on the rear support vehicle of each peloton. The peloton will also be supported by the NSW Ambulance Services.

There are no road closures, lane closures or detours scheduled for the event.

Consultation

The organisers are required to liaise with the NSW Traffic Management Centre prior to commencement of the event to gather any necessary approvals.
