Background

1. The City of Sydney's Grants and Sponsorship Program supports residents, businesses and not-for-profit organisations to undertake initiatives and projects that build the social, cultural, environmental and economic life of the city.
2. On 8 July 2025, the City announced the grants program as being open for application on its website, with grant applications closing on 12 August 2025. This was for a period of 5 weeks.
3. The funding program with key outcomes for the social pillar is:
 - (a) Food support program
4. The Food support program is open to eligible not-for-profit organisations and incorporated associations, and in tier 1 to individuals auspiced by an eligible not-for-profit organisation and unincorporated community group auspiced by an eligible not-for-profit organisation.
5. The Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Collaboration Fund is open all year round with the First Nations Leadership team assessing applications in batches every 3 to 3 months.
6. The Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Collaboration Fund is open to eligible Aboriginal not-for-profit and for-profit organisations and to Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander individuals. The following for-profit organisation is eligible for funding:
 - (a) Jodie Ann Choolburra.
7. The First Nations Leadership team is currently working with existing creative tenants of 107 Redfern Street, Redfern, to vacate by 5 December 2025. The next step will be to set up an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander sub-committee to guide the temporary local Aboriginal activation of 107 Redfern Street in early 2026.
8. It is proposed that funding of up to $20,000 each to a maximum total of $50,000 is provided to successful applicants through an Expression of Interest process aligned to the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Collaboration Fund to support activations of the space. Eligible applicants will be those that are currently eligible through the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Collaboration Fund.
9. If approved, the Grants team will work with the First Nations Leadership team to run an expression of interest process over December 2025 and January 2026 for community members to propose short-term projects to be delivered from March 2026. The First Nations Leadership team would assess expressions of interest. Grants will be up to $20,000 and managed through contracts with the City.
10. To allow for this program to be delivered within this short turnaround period, Council will need to approve the granting of financial assistance of up to $50,000 in principle, with a delegation to the Chief Executive Officer to approve the recipients and report on the outcomes via CEO Update.

11. In the longer term, the City's objective is to develop a community-driven and community-led, sustainable Aboriginal creative and cultural hub. To support this process, consultants Cox Inall Ridgeway have been engaged to undertake research on relevant case studies and provide advice on viable governance and operating models to inform decisions regarding the future use of 107 Redfern Street.

Grants assessment process

12. The City's Grants and Sponsorship Program is highly competitive. Applications that are not recommended have either not scored as highly against the assessment criteria as the recommended applications or have incomplete or insufficient information. The City's Grants and Sponsorship team provides feedback to unsuccessful applicants.
13. The assessment process includes advice and recommendations from a suitably qualified assessment panel. The applications are scored against defined assessment criteria for each grant program as well as the integrity of the proposed budget, project plan, partnerships, contributions and connection to the local community and industry sectors.
14. The assessment criteria for the Grant program was:
 - Need – why is it needed? This is where you describe what you are doing, why it is important and what will happen as a result of you doing this project.
 - Experience – how will you create the project, your skills and ability and your experience in doing projects. This may include a project plan.
 - Community benefit – who will benefit from your project, how will they benefit and how have you included the diverse communities in the local area.
 - City of Sydney funding priorities as outlined in the guidelines – your project should consider one of the funding priorities as these are identified areas that need assistance.
15. The assessment meeting for the Food support program was held on 17 September 2025. All applications were assessed against the relevant publicised assessment criteria. The assessment panels consisted of City staff from City Life and across the organisation with input from First Nations Leadership team.
16. The assessment meeting for the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander fund was held on 1 October 2025. All applications were assessed against the relevant publicised assessment criteria. The assessment panel consisted of City staff from the First Nations Leadership team.
17. Once Council approves recommended applications, a contract is developed which includes conditions that must be adhered to and acquitted against.
18. It is expected that all successful applicants will work cooperatively with relevant City staff throughout the project for which they have received funding.
19. All grants and sponsorships are recommended on the condition that any required approvals, permits and development consents are obtained by the applicant.

20. Attached to this report is a high level summary on the outcomes of the funding if the recommendations are approved. This provides insight into what the applicants have identified they hope to achieve if they receive the City's funding.
